From Pain To Peace

A funny thing happened the week we were going to write the newsletter...our plans changed.

We have been intentionally developing a long-term training course and we were ready to launch it when we realized we were moving too quickly. In our enthusiasm we were ready to start a full one week course, but as we polled our potential students we found most could get that much time away from work, so we changed the date, shortened the schedule and are reworking the material to fit into a smaller weekend retreat. We will have it November 17-20!

We have mental health professionals and pastoral counselors approaching us asking us to train them in what we are doing because they are running into sexual abuse constantly in their work.

We know what we do works, because this is what our counselee's tell us:

Quote from Mike

"The [healing presence prayer] that we did yesterday made a huge difference. I feel the shame gone, and feel really light really made a difference, and the best I have in weeks and weeks ... I just wanted to encourage you with that."

Quote from Mary

I wanted to thank you for your words, time, counsel, and actions. I see you as a divine gift from God. Although I have some long-term friends, they either don't understand the depth or they are still in process working through their own stuff. You are a role model who is leading, ministering and living with great victory, healing, and understanding.

I (Lisa) have been working on a curriculum over the last several years as I have studied and taught and now with Eric's training and teaching experience of the last few years we are ready to start a long-term training program. Practicing the 'Healing Presence Prayer'

As hard as it is to have Eric travel and be away, we ache to see people who have been traumatized by abuse, all of the world, ministered to. They are our people group and the mission field the Lord has called us to. So Eric plans to return to Denmark in a few weeks to serve on the board of the very school that trained us both. The plans for the school in Egypt continue to prosper in spite of all the turmoil and the school leader feels sure it will happen. So Eric plans to go there to teach the end of September as we see a release of funds for his travel. The school in India is scheduled for the end of October and the school leader there is also counting on Eric to come and teach. I have felt led again to stay out of travel plans this year and focus on writing and finalizing curriculum. These trips take a lot of time, energy and finances. There is always lots of warfare around them so we appreciate your prayers for the money and protection for them.

Eric teaching the FCM counseling school at YWAM Strategic Frontiers school in April

Eric taught in the YWAM counseling school in April and counseled the students. He turned 50 in February so he is becoming a father figure everywhere he goes. We both taught seminars at the city-wide event: Men of Valor and Women of Virtue in January, where we got to network with other organizations in the city and teach on the link between sexual abuse and sexual addiction and shame.

Eric's Travel Schedule

- SCANDINAVIA - 31 July - 8 Aug - Preaching in a church, and leading morning devotionals at ISARPAC counseling school. Also part of the board and attending meeting
- EGYPT - 27 Sept - 8 October - Counseling school / training
- DENMARK - 10 October -14 October - teaching Father Heart of God in YWAM Denmark
- INDIA - October 22 -30 - Teaching for the 5th time in ASARPAC
